

23rd Annual Conference of the International Association for the Study of Dreams
at Bridgewater State College, Bridgewater, Massachusetts

Dreams Building Bridges

JUNE 20 – 24, 2006

See the IASD Web site for more information and online registration:
www.asdreams.org/2006

Explore the meanings and mysteries of dreams and nightmares with world-famous authors, psychotherapists, psychoanalysts, artists, educators and researchers in the field of Dream Studies. Take advantage of the daily social events, join in group lunches, purchase author-signed books, and chat informally with your favorite dream experts. The many well-known authors, researchers and experts in the field of dreams and dreamwork that make up our conference this year include: Montague Ullman, MD, (one of the founding fathers of modern dreamwork); Michael Conforti, PhD, (Jungian Analyst and researcher); Orson Scott Card, (well-known author of many science fiction/fantasy novels); Deirdre Barrett, PhD, (author of The Committee of Sleep); Kelly Bulkeley, PhD, (author of Dreaming Beyond Death); Patricia Garfield, PhD, (author of Creative Dreaming); Ernest Hartmann, MD, (author of Dreams and Nightmares); Curtiss Hoffman, PhD, (author of The Seven Story Tower); Robert Hoss, MS, (author of Dream Language); Stanley Krippner, PhD, (co-author of Extraordinary Dreams and How to Work with Them); Alan Siegel, PhD, & Marcia Emery, PhD, (the Discovery Health Channel "Dream Decoders"); Rev. Dr. Jeremy Taylor (author of The Living Labyrinth); Bob Van de Castle, PhD, (author of Our Dreaming Mind) and over 100 other presenters.

VENUE • The Conference will be held on the campus of Bridgewater State College, located in a small, quiet town about 30 miles south of Boston. It is a progressive, academically challenging public college with state-of-the-art technology. The campus has relatively flat terrain and is easy to traverse. The dormitory spaces for lodging the conference attendees are modern and comfortable, and most rooms are airconditioned. (Register early to ensure an airconditioned room). The food service (by Sodexho) is cafeteria style for the main meals and of excellent quality. There is a commuter rail line located right on campus which leads directly to South Station in Boston where airport transport is available, and within easy walking distance of major shopping and sight-seeing areas.

2006 CONFERENCE EVENTS • Over 125 workshops and events on all aspects of dreaming are planned, with topics and events of interest to the general public as well as professionals. Special events include: an Opening Reception and Keynote by Michael Conforti, PhD, Tuesday evening; a Dream Arts Exhibition and reception on Wednesday evening; a special luncheon with Monte Ullman, PhD, a solstice visit to a Native American archaeoastronomical site, and a Dream Telepathy Contest on Thursday; Orson Scott Card on Friday evening, and on Saturday evening the ever popular closing costume "Dream Ball."

EARN CE CREDITS (Continuing Education) AND PDPS (Professional Development Points) for selected sessions. The provider of the CE credits is the IASD Dream Studies Continuing Education program. IASD is approved by the American Psychological Association to sponsor continuing education for psychologists. IASD maintains responsibility for this program and its content. A partial list of presenters and abbreviated presentation titles, is included below. Visit www.asdreams.org/2006 to review the complete schedule and CE offerings.

REGISTER NOW ONLINE AT www.asdreams.org/2006 campus housing and meals are strongly recommended since off-campus facilities require personal transportation. Single day and full conference registration will also be available onsite but without the pre-registration discount, meals or housing (Individual meals may be purchased on campus). Go to www.asdreams.org/2006/idx\_accommodations.htm for a list of off-campus facilities. Lodging in East Hall (which is airconditioned) is limited to 200 rooms (300 persons). Lodging beyond this will be accommodated in other residence halls on campus which are not airconditioned. When you register you may either pay online with a credit card, or complete the transaction and follow up by mail with a check. Alternately you can mail in the registration form attached below, with your check or credit card information. Note: Rates increase after 10 June, and no campus housing or meal reservations are possible after 1 June, so don't wait.

TRANSPORT Driving distance is 30 miles from Boston to the Bridgewater campus. The commuter rail line is located right on campus which connects directly to South Station in Boston where airport transport is available by cab or shuttle. Knight's limo service is also available from Logan and T. F. Greene Airports. Contact numbers for local travel and alternative local housing can be found at www.asdreams.org/2006/idx\_travel.htm

CONTACTS and INFORMATION

- For Registration and Conference Information go to www.asdreams.org/2006
- For General Questions you may contact office@asdreams.org or leave a call-back message at 1-866-DREAM12 (866-373-2612).
- Our Host Curt Hoffman may be contacted at curtiss.hoffman@bridgew.edu
- For Conference Public Relations contact Karen Bartnicki at KJ.Bartnicki@verizon.net
- For information on Volunteer opportunities, in exchange for reduced conference fees, go to www.asdreams.org/2006/idx\_volunteers.htm
- For periodic updates subscribe to the monthly IASD E-News group by sending a blank e-mail to: iasd-enews-subscribe@yahogroups.com
- Mailing address: International Association for the Study of Dreams, 1672 University Avenue Berkeley, CA 94703

About the International Association for the Study of Dreams

The IASD is a nonprofit, international, multidisciplinary organization dedicated to the pure and applied investigation of dreams and dreaming. Its purpose is to promote an awareness and appreciation of dreams in both professional and public arenas; to encourage research into the nature, function, and significance of dreaming; to advance the application of the study of dreams; and to provide a forum for the eclectic and interdisciplinary exchange of ideas and information. IASD is open to anyone who studies, explores, or works with dreams. Membership represents about 30 countries and people from all disciplines including: psychology, psychiatry, social work, education at all levels, religious studies, anthropology, medicine, the expressive and performing arts, literature, philosophy, humanities and business. Membership benefits include the professional journal Dreaming and the magazine DreamTime, discounts to conferences plus many online benefits. For information about the organization or how to become a member please go to www.asdreams.org

IASD ETHICAL POLICIES • Participants and presenters agree to follow IASD's Ethics Statement and Dreamwork Ethics Statement which are posted on our Web site and will appear in the conference program. Our ethical policy emphasizes respect, confidentiality, and sensitivity to individual and cultural differences. Full details are available on our Web site.